The Maybrick Case.

The trial and conviction of the American woman, Mrs. Maybrick, in Liverpool, for the poisoning of her husband, is attracting a good deal of comment in the press of the United States, and the way in which the judge who tried the case argued the evidence and gave his opinion in criticism with more or less severity by the American papers, has become a feature of the trial which will command themselves to our people. The opinion was given on the 10th of May, and the trial of the husband began on July 21st and ended August 7th. From that time to the date of the opinion, the trial was a long one, and the evidence was so voluminous that it was necessary to convene the jury every day, and to convene the jury every day, and to convene the jury every day.

The Lighting.

During the electric disturbance yesterday afternoon the J. B. Campbell dwelling at 818 East Orchard street, occupied partly by the family of George Welly, was struck by lightning, the roof and rafters being badly damaged, the walls shaken and the chimney badly wrecked. Mrs. Welly was outside at the pump. She was shocked, and it was an hour before she again had the use of an arm that was affected. Damage to the house about $200.

THE SAME OLD TRICK.
Sharps are still in the vicinity of Decatur trying to entice farmers out of money by adopting the same old trick to try to work on Andrew Dennis. On Wednesday, near Shelbyville, two fellows attempted the game on James Boya, a wealthy farmer of Ridge township. The telegram giving the particulars says: "It was the same old scheme of a stranger desiring to purchase a farm. The second stranger appeared on the scene with a check of $100. A bet was made on the turning of a card and won by the hand purchaser, but in payment of the wager a $1000 was needed and Mr. Boya was asked for a temporary loan. He did not have that amount with him, but started Shelbyville with the purpose to get it, but on the way he became suspicious all was not right and ordered the man to return to his farm. They refused and whipped up their horses. In a desperate effort Boya jumped from the buggy and escaped. The swindlers had a lively team from Shelbyville which failed to return though work was needed. The team is at Mount. Mr. Boya is quite old and at the time had $200 in his purse."

On the Way.
This morning the Citizens' company received a letter from the Thompson-Houston people stating that the two generators for the Citizens' Electric railway had been shipped for Decatur from Lynn, Mass., on Wednesday, August 7. They are expected to arrive not later than Monday or Tuesday, so it is quite probable that the Citizens' company will have their plant in full operation by the time next week.

Last evening Minnie Dill entertained the members of the Dan O'Shaughnessy Club and their friends at her lovely suburban home north of the city, in a very pleasant manner. Elegant refreshments were served party fashion, and not until a very late hour did they depart, all vowing to be one of the most pleasant evenings they ever spent. Those present were: Misses Alice Hubbard, Anna Cox, Jean Ferguson, Nellie Gay, Annie Taylor, Laura Abbott, Hannah, Walter, Charles, and Mrs. W. S. L. Timony, Adolph Mueller, Will Bachman, Will Hill, Frank Riggs, M. C. Moore, Eugene Van Buren, Robert Mueller, Elmer Greco and Mr. Greco, of Detroit.

Several heavily loaded excursion trains are expected to arrive in Decatur to-morrow, the people coming to take in the camp meeting and the ball games. The hotel and restaurant will be prepared to feed the crowd.

This morning the Law and Literary Society held its evening in the office of James Taylor, over Dinges & Cloyd's, was well attended. The question which served for debate was: Resolved, "That Man is Intellectually Superior to Woman." The affirmative was represented by James M. Lee and Harris Lee; the negative by Thomas Penn, J. C. Lee, and J. H. McCoy. Devoted in favor of the negative.

On Tuesday evening next, the ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a reception and sale at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Harsh on Prairie Avenue, in honor of the new pastor, Rev. W. H. Penhalligan, who will occupy the pulpit on Sunday. It is probable that during the presence of Rev. Penhalligan in the city the church will decide upon the site for the new place of worship.

B. B. SUTHER, of Chicago, representing Andrews & Co., of the Hotel Brunswick, Mr. S. is the gentleman sent here to place the new church in the Grand Opera House, and he is now engaged in that work. The scenic artists, who have painted the scenery for the stage, will return to St. Louis to-morrow, and next week leave Broadway, for Lamp & Spranger, will begin putting down the carpets and putting up the curtains and drapery.

Excellent Discipline.
Col. Chaudin's captured the Sixth regiment at Camp Lincoln shortly after midnight Friday morning. Some one fired off the signal gun, and the camp was soon in an uproar. The long roll was sounded, and in just two minutes Company E, of Sterling, Capt. Frank Anthony, was on the parade ground in complete marching order, and in exactly four minutes after the firing of the signal gun the last company reported for orders. The time made by the Sixth at the quickest ever made at camp and indicated a high degree of discipline. What until the gallant Fifth goes into camp, then we will hear of marvellous time.

A Good Show at Last.
At last we are to have a show under canvas that is worthy of and will receive general patronage. We allude to Walter & Co's great World's Menagerie and International Three Ring Circus, which is to be in Decatur on Monday, August 27th at the park. This entertainment has given general satisfaction wherever it has exhibited, and is everywhere superior to all being in every respect superior.

John Engraver will move his family to Chicago the latter part of next week where they will reside in the future. R. B. Montgomery will soon begin the erection of a handsome residence on the corner of Prairie avenue and Pine street.

The Decatur Reds will hold another reception at the ball park Sunday afternoon and have a go on the diamond with the Arcola Champion club.

This cylinder to the water motor on Lincoln Square is out of order and H. Mueller and Sons are repairing it to-day.

A Reunion at Delavan.
Lieutenant Stephen B. Hatfield, of Co. H, 115th Illinois Regiment, was in Decatur yesterday looking up the old comrades of his regiment and inviting them to attend the annual reunion of the Tazewell County Union Veteran Association to be held at Delavan on Thursday, August 15th. Co. H was recruited at Delavan, Tazewell county having sent to the front 10 regiments of cavalry, artillery and infantry. Gen. James S. Martin and Colonel P. L. McKim will be among the speakers. It is expected that quite a party of Decatur veterans will attend the reunion, as they can go up on the P. & D. train and return at 10 o'clock; fare $1.50 for the round trip. Among the survivors of the 115th in Decatur are Major F. L. Hays, Dr. E. W. Moore, regimental surgeon, A. Littenberger, adjutant, Wood Peddicord, quartermaster, M. Imboden, W. H. Kopp, R. W. Smith, R. J. Roberts and John Quinlan.

This morning Willis W. Jones, of Chicago, the defeated Labor Union candidate for governor of Illinois in the campaign of '88, had a spirited talk at the St. Nicholas with his old Greenback friend, Rev. De La Matry, who at one time was an Indiana congressman and a flat-money agitator. Mr. Jones is a lively conversationalist. The conference evidently did him a power of good.

WIND AND WATER.
The Shake-Up at the Camp Meeting—A Plan to Raise Money.
Prospects Bright for a Large Crowd Sunday.
Gilbert D. LaMatry arrived from Denver, Colorado, this morning and Colonel Bitter from Indianapolis. Both were present at the meeting this morning and addressed the children's meeting. There was an interesting discussion at eleven o'clock on ways and means by which the camp-meeting can be improved and its influence extended. Among other things suggested was more accommodations for lodging on the grounds, and railroad rates extending to every part of the state.
Gilbert D. LaMatry and Col. Bitter spent this afternoon. Col. Bitter and Joe Hess, who arrived at 2:30 to-day, will speak to-night.

DAMAGE TO THE TENTS.
When the severe storm came up yesterday afternoon many of the campers rushed to the pavilion tent, 80 x 100 feet, to escape a drowning. There were about 25 people under the tent, including many ladies. The lightning flashed, the climber crashed and the rain came down in torrents, while for a time the short-lived hurricane bent the tall trees and shook up the tents in a way to frighten everybody on the ground. Along the edge of the big tent the water collected by the barrel. It could not run off and consequently the South half of the big tent blew down, causing the center poles to sway in a way to threaten injury to the several people who thrilled together near the speakers stand, wondering no doubt if they would escape with their lives. Manager Smith turned several shades paler as he saw the havoc wrought by the wind and water, but he was powerless to hinder the operation of the cold water people. Hon. James Lammot said afterwards that the situation was something frightful, and when it was suggested that the people might not be so afraid of water, he replied that they did not want to be preferred to take it internally. The weight of the water did considerable damage to the tent, pulling up the side staves and ripping the canvas in places. The tent was put back in place before this night meeting. It is the property of the Holmes Camp Meeting association and all damage will be made good by Manager Smith. The living tents were blown down by the wind, while water flowed down the hill under the straw and trunks in the tents in a way that made the campers sick as they thought of the dampness.

CARING FOR THE HAIR.

USEFUL INFORMATION FROM ONE WHO HAS INVESTIGATED.

How to Keep the Hair Glossy, Healthy and Handsome—Combs Should Be Used Sparingly—Simple Recipes That Will Add Greatly to Man and Woman's Comfort.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever," and so is a rich mass of hair on a woman's head. Even if nature has denied her, she can make up for it by using the hair oil which will make her hair grow and keep it in a healthy condition.

Perhaps a few hints on the care of the hair may be welcome. Let the first great requisite be cleanliness. The scalp is the seat of the hair, and if it is not kept clean, the hair will not grow and will fall out.

Under ordinary circumstances frequent brushing is sufficient to keep the hair and scalp clean and in good condition. Washing need be indulged in only once a month, when the scalp is itchy and the hair is falling out.
